

ARTHUR DEVLIN

1923 Born in Lake Placid, NY and started skiing at the age of four. He was a four event skier, but is far better known for his expertise of jumping on the big hills.

1942, 1950, 1951 Won the Paul Bietila Memorial Trophy, the award signifying the highest placing American in the National Ski Association's Jumping Meet.

1944 Named to the mythical 'All American Ski Team'.

1946 Class A National Champion in Steamboat Springs, CO.

1952 Member of the U.S. Olympic Ski Team in Oslo, Norway, placing 15th overall.

1956 Member of the U.S. Olympic Ski Team in Cortina, Italy, placing 21st overall with a total of 194.5 points.

1963 Elected to the National Ski Hall of Fame in Ishpeming, MI.

1980 He was influential in a group of organizers for getting the Olympics to Lake Placid. He also served on the Organizing Committee during construction for the games plus during the running of the games.

He was a long time member of the Sno Bird Ski Club of Lake Placid.

He is known internationally as a television sportscaster, particularly on televised ski jumping events.